

THE BRASSERIE HISTORIQUE DE L'ABBAYE DU CATEAU

Established in the heart of an ancient abbey, the Brasserie historique de l'abbaye du Cateau is now a « Historical Monument ».

It is located in the historic center of the Cateau-Cambrésis, Matisse's native town, and it has been a brewery since before the French revolution. Starting in 1926, the monument has been used as a warehouse during WWII. And it took more than 4 years to renovate it, after the acquisition by Jean-Luc Butez and his associate in 2000. The brewery is now one of the only gravity breweries still existing in Europe.

It produces the beer named « Vivat ». Moreover, you can eat at the restaurant every day, except on Mondays. A restaurant headed by a famous chef in the area who likes to cook typical meals from the North of France.
